Documentation: Annotated provisional agenda (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/1)

2. Matters arising since the last session

(a) United Nations, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe and subsidiary bodies

The secretariat will present recent matters arising from the United Nations, the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (ECE), the Steering Committee on Trade Capacity and Standards (SCTCS) and the Working Party on Agricultural Quality Standards (WP.7) having an impact on the work of the Specialized Section.

Documentation: Report of the seventy-sixth session of the Working Party on Agricultural Quality Standards (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/2021/2)

(b) Recent developments in other organizations

Representatives of other organizations and country delegations will inform the Specialized Section about activities taking place in their agencies that are of relevance to the work of the Specialized Section.

3. Micro, small and medium-sized enterprises and agricultural quality standards for resilient supply chains

The secretariat will present the work accomplished on e-learning material (developed under a United Nations Development Account COVID-19 response project). Delegations are invited to report on their countries' work and available e-learning and other related material. The Specialized Section is invited to advice on the development of further guidance material and other contributions.

Documentation: Update from the secretariat on the e-learning course (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/INF.1)

4. Analysis of the impact of agricultural quality standards on the trade of fruit and vegetables

Following the discussion at the 2021 session, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) expressed interest to implement the study jointly with the ECE on the impact of agricultural quality standards on the trade of fruit and vegetables. The preliminary results were presented at the 2021 session of WP.7 and the OECD and the ECE secretariats continued collaborating to finalize the study.

The Specialized Section is invited to review and endorse the final results of the study.

Documentation: Results of the study (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/INF.2)

5. Sustainable Development Goal 12 and sustainable practices: food loss and waste prevention related to standards

The Specialized Section is invited to review the four brochures developed under a United Nations Development Account project to facilitate practical application of the Code of Good Practice, developed by the ad-hoc drafting group under the Specialized Section and presented at the 2021 session of WP.7.

Documentation: Good practices in harvest and post-harvest handling of floral vegetables (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/3)

Good practices in harvest and post-harvest handling of immature fruit vegetables (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/4)

Good practices in harvest and post-harvest handling of leafy vegetables (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/5)

Good practices in harvest and post-harvest handling of root vegetables (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/6)

6. Electronic quality certificates for fresh fruit and vegetables

During 2020-2021 under a United Nations Development Account project, the secretariat in collaboration with the United Nations Centre for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business (UN/CEFACT) and the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) has developed the functional specifications (i.e. standardized business process) for an electronic certification system for fresh fruits and vegetables, including support for using an electronic version of the e-quality certificate. The functional specifications were completed in November 2021 and submitted to WP.7 for review, with comments received from Brazil, Germany, the Netherlands, Spain, and the United States of America. The specification is now ready to be used by Governments who are interested in developing or enhancing their ICT systems.

The secretariat will update the Specialized Section on the progress in 2021 and possible implementation modalities of electronic quality (e-quality) certificates.

7. Capacity-building and promotional activities

The secretariat and delegations will provide information about their promotional and capacity-building activities in the past year and preview upcoming events and training. The Specialized Section is invited to propose other capacity-building activities and discuss related resource mobilization.

8. Exchange of experience on using the UNECE Code Mark Registry

The delegation of Germany proposed to study the experience of marking packages with official codes for the shipper's information. It was proposed to explore how the inspection bodies proceed if the structure of the code does not match the information provided in the Code Mark Registry or if the country of dispatch is not listed in the Code Mark Registry.

Documentation: Exchange of experience on using the UNECE Code Mark Registry (Germany) (ECE/CTCS/WP.7/GE.1/2022/7)

9. Revision of standards

(a) Further discussion of 2021 proposals

The Specialized Section is invited to review the proposed changes and continue the discussions on outstanding issues in view of a possible approval of the following standards:
