

Agenda

Sustainable Thailand 2022

Moving from Ambition to Action towards a Greener Financial System

18 November 2022

UN Conference Centre, Conference Room 3

- 09:00 – 09:30 Registration, Coffee and Networking
- 09:30 – 09:33 Welcome Remarks by Ms. Gita Sabharwal, the UN Resident Coordinator
- 09:33 – 09:37 Opening Remarks by Ms. Ruenvadee Suwanmongkol, the Secretary-General of the Securities and Exchange Commission
- 09:37 – 09:40 Opening Remarks by Dr. Srikanya Yathip, the Secretary-General of the Government Pension Fund
- 09:40 – 09:50 Keynote Address by Mr. Arkhom Termpittayapaisith, the Minister of Finance
- 09:50 – 09:55 Group photo
- 09:55 – 10:05 Transitioning towards environmental sustainability under the new Thai financial landscape
- Speaker
Mr. Ronadol Numnonda, Deputy Governor for Financial Institutions Stability, the Bank of Thailand
- 10:05 – 10:25 Purpose and practice: How financial services can mobilize capital to deliver net zero in Thailand
- Speakers
Mr. Giorgio Gamba, CEO of HSBC Thailand
Mr. Nikorn Nikornphan, Member of Sustainable Banking Working Group, the Thai Bankers' Association
- 10:25 – 10:45 Purpose and practice: How financial businesses and institutional investors have driven ESG agenda in Thailand
- Speakers
Dr. Srikanya Yathip, Secretary-General of the Government Pension Fund
Dr. Kobsak Pootrakool, Chairman of Federation of Thai Capital Market Organizations

10:45 – 11:05 How private sector financing can accelerate green growth in Thailand

Speakers

Mr. Anouj Mehta, ADB Country Director for Thailand

Mr. Nuttavut Intarode, Sustainable Development Director of the Siam Cement

11:05 – 11:45 Next steps – How to foster more effective collaboration between the private sector and the financial market to scale up sustainable financing as businesses adjust to environmental risks in Thailand

Speakers

Mr. Vitai Ratanakorn, President and CEO of Government Savings Bank

Mr. Krit Jitjang, President of KASIKORNBANK

Ms. Uthaiwan Anuchitanukul, Head of Excellence & Sustainable Development, Central Pattana

Ms. Jomkwan Kongsakul, Assistant Secretary-General of the Securities and Exchange Commission