Weather in Tunis

Temperature

Days in Tunis are still warm in October by northern European standards. The average temperature during the day lingers around 21 degrees Celsius. This average is compiled based on a potential low of 16 degrees Celsius and a high of up to 26 degrees.

Average Sunshine Hours

However, there will still be around nine hours of sunshine on any given day.

Rain

The rainfall starts to grow to winter levels in October with 60 milliliters of precipitation throughout the month.

Time Zone

UTC +1:00 (TUN)

Electricity:

- Voltage: 220-240 Volts
- Primary Socket Type: Euro plug, Schuko
- Multi-voltage Appliance (laptops, etc.): Plug adapter
- 110-120 V electronics: Plug adapter + step- down transformer
- Hair dryers, curling irons, etc. Plug adapter +voltage Converter

In Tunisia, the French /Belgian plugs (Type E) are widely used. Although in principle, they are compatible with most other European plugs, there is a pitfall. Tunisian plug and socket with grounding pin (Type E)

Currency:

The Tunisian Dinar (TND) is the currency of Tunisia.

Currency Exchange:

You can exchange foreign currency at the Airport, banks, hotels and post offices. Exchange rate are fixed by the government. Bring your passport along as it may be required if you want to exchange money.

Credit Cards:

Credit and debit cards using the Visa or Master Card network are accepted as payment in larger tourist orientated stores, and many mid-range and luxury hotels, as well as at most car hire agencies and established travel agencies.

ATM:

ATMs are widely available in tourist resorts and in most towns. Most ATMs are linked to the Visa network though a few, such as ATMs connected to the Bank of Tunisia, also accept Maestro. It is important to always have a small emergency cash fund at hand while travelling in Tunisia for the times when the ATM rejects your card, or simply doesn't work, which can be a quite frequent occurrence, especially once you're away from the coastal resort areas. The most commonly accepted currencies are the US dollar and the Euro.

Banking Hours:

Mon-Thu: 8 am-12pm and 2pm-4pm, Fri: 8am-12pm and 1pm-4pm.

Please note that it is illegal to take ANY Tunisian currency out of the country. You must change back ALL currency, including coins, when you leave. You can still make purchases at the airside shops and cafes, since they take arrange of non-Tunisian currencies, notably Euro, GBP and USD.

The Tunisian authorities have the right to search your baggage and spot-searches are common. They really do mean it – NO currency is to be exported.

Official Language in Tunisia

The Modern Standard Arabic, or literary Arabic, is the official language of Tunisia. However, they also use French and local Tunisian dialect (known locally as Darja). Arabic is the language that all literate speakers of Tunisia understand and can speak. Some English can be spoken and understood by most of Tunisian.

Documentation:

Documents will be provided during the Conference.

All documentation related to the conference will be uploaded on the conference website:
