Annual Donor Meeting
Protection Funding: Where do we stand in 2023?

03rd OCTOBER 2023, 15.00 – 16.30 CET

Dear colleagues,

The Global Protection Cluster (GPC) and its Areas of Responsibility (AoRs) are pleased to invite you to the Annual Donor Meeting on Protection Funding in 2023, which will be co-chaired by the Permanent Mission of Norway to the United Nations in Geneva. This event will serve as a moment of critical reflection in understanding and addressing the priority gaps, trends and opportunities with our collective efforts to strengthen the protection of communities impacted by crisis. The data and analysis shared will reflect the very up-to-date situation faced by our 32 Protection Cluster operations on the ground, providing concrete recommendations for donors based on these findings.

Programme

Opening remarks
State of protection funding
Spotlight on community-led protection
Discussion and questions
Closing remarks and way forward

Format and attendance details

The meeting will take place in person at the Palais des Nations in Geneva, Avenue de la Paix, 1211 (Room VIII). You will need an UNOG pass to access the building. If you don't have a pass, please register through the Indico system. For any support, you can reach out to daniela.ciulei@un.org.

For colleagues not based in Geneva and who would like to attend online, please reach out to HQPROCLU@unhcr.org and a meeting link will be shared with you a couple of days in advance.

We look forward to your participation.

With best regards,

Samuel Cheung,
Global Protection Cluster
Coordinator

Tormod C. Endresen
Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Norway to the UN in Geneva
