

LILIT GHAZARYAN

Deputy Director, Center of Drug and Medical Technology Expertise (AMPRA), Ministry of Health, Republic of Armenia

WHO Collaborative Registration Procedure (CRP - WHO) focal point in Armenia

Lilit Ghazaryan is a pharmacist, with a PhD in pharmaceuticals. For more than 20 years she has been working in the area of medicinal product regulation. She has started her career in a regional pharmacy and joined the Center of Drug and Medical Technology Expertise, the National Medicine Regulatory Authority under Ministry of Health in June 1997. Currently she holds the position of deputy director, as well as representing Armenia in the Eurasian Economic Union Expert Committee on pharmaceuticals. She has also led various projects aimed at developing policies and strategies linked to regulatory systems strengthening, convergence, harmonization, implementation the concept of reliance in regulation of medical products, as well as has been involved in various capacity-building and benchmarking activities carried out by the World Health Organization (WHO). She has initiated participation in Collaborative Registration Procedure (CRP) in 2014 and formally incorporated it into medicine registration system of Armenia. Since 2011 she has been appointing also focal point with the responsibility to create and maintain Antimicrobial consumption (AMC) monitoring system in Armenia participating in AMC network coordinated by WHO Regional Office for Europe.