

'Protection through online participation' – Experts consultation meeting to outline principles and recommendations for technology companies to bridge safety and protection with children and youth

Thursday, 6 June 2024

'Protection through online participation' – Experts consultation meeting to outline principles and recommendations for technology companies to bridge safety and protection with children and youth (09:00 - 17:00)