

Session Program

15 May 2017

The importance of the recognition of rights holders and collective rights : the perspective of the voices of peasants and other people working in rural areas

The importance of the recognition of rights holders and collective rights : the perspective of the voices of peasants and other people working in rural areas

Palais des Nations
Geneva, Switzerland

Monday 15 May

13:15

15:00

The importance of the recognition of rights holders and collective rights : the perspective of the voices of peasants and other people working in rural areas

Session | Location: Palais des Nations, Geneva, Switzerland