

HIGH-LEVEL CONFERENCE

PREPAREDNESS FOR PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCIES

Challenges and opportunities in urban areas

3-4 December 2018 - Musée des Confluences
Lyon, France

Day 2 - Tuesday 4 December 2018

Preparedness for public health emergencies in urban areas: opportunities and way forward

Chair: Pr Benoît Vallet, Councillor, French General and Accounting Office, former Director General of Health, France

Day 2 - Session 3: Strengthening multi-sectoral preparedness

09:30-09:45 Setting the scene: From global to local: Satellites opportunities for public health
Key note speaker: Ms Sandrine Lafont, Expert Space Applications and Downstream Services, Centre National d'Etudes Spatiales (CNES), France

09:45-10:45 Round Table 4: How global initiatives can impact urban areas preparedness for health emergencies

Moderator: Ms Karin Knufmann-Happe, Former Director General of Health Protection, Disease Control and Biomedicine, Federal Ministry of Health, Germany

Panel Members:

- Dr Stella Chungong, Chief, CPI Country Monitoring and Evaluation Unit (WHO)
- Mr Stephen Creamer, Director of Air Navigation, International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO)
- Dr Ahmed El-Idrissi, Senior Animal Health Officer, Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO)
- Dr Monique Eloit, Director General, World Organization for Animal Health (OIE)
- Dr Anung Sugihantono, Director General of Disease Control and Prevention, Ministry of Health, Indonesia
- Dr Beyza Unal, Senior Research Fellow, International Security Department, Chatham House, Royal Institute of International Affairs, UK