

SECURING OUR COMMON FUTURE

An Agenda for Disarmament

“Disarmament concerns every country and all weapons, from hand grenades to hydrogen bombs. My new Agenda focuses on disarmament to save humanity, disarmament that saves lives, and disarmament for future generations.”

António Guterres, United Nations Secretary-General, 24 May 2018

THE GENEVA DIALOGUES

on Securing our Common Future

Strengthening Partnerships for Disarmament

Wednesday 5 September, 5-7pm

Palais des Nations, Room XXIV

Light refreshments will be served after the event

Join us for the fourth dialogue in this series on UN Secretary General’s Agenda for Disarmament, that will look at concrete ways to reinforce partnerships among all disarmament actors and to develop new cooperation opportunities.

- What role can the UN disarmament machinery play in strengthening partnerships, including with regional organizations?
- How can we ensure and enhance gender equity in disarmament processes?
- How can we better engage youth, civil society, and the private sector in implementing and improving existing disarmament frameworks?

This event will discuss these questions, drawing on the experience of invited speakers dealing with the engagement of youth, women, and regional organizations.

Speakers include: Dr. Renata Dalaqua, UNIDIR researcher
Ms. Ronit Langer, iGEM ambassador
