

A Learning Session on HIV-affected Adolescent Mothers and their Children in Sub-Saharan Africa

13 December 2019 WHO, D- Building - Geneva, Switzerland

Agenda

8:45-9:00	Registration and refreshments
9:00-9:10	Welcome by co-hosts, The Coalition for Children affected by AIDS, WHO and PMNCH	Dr Meg Doherty Lisa Bohmer
9:10-9:15	Welcome by Chair	Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation
9:15-10:00	Section 1: Overview	Panel presentation followed by Q&A Chaired by Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation
	Comments from adolescent mothers	Video of adolescent mothers
	Why are HIV-affected adolescent mothers and their children central to global strategies, frameworks and norms?	WHO USAID
	What is the evidence telling us? Summary of background paper	Lorraine Sherr, University College London
	<ul> <li>What are the outcomes for adolescent mothers and their children across SDG and HIV indicators?</li> <li>What is their strategic significance in the long-term attainment of development and HIV goals?</li> </ul>
	The Programming Landscape: What is being done?	Laurie Gulaid, Unicef ESARO
	What development programmes currently target HIV-affected adolescent mothers and their children?
	<ul> <li>To what extent are they a priority for international donors and policy makers?</li> </ul>

What role can men and boys play and how best to support them?      Enabling adolescent-led initiatives to support those harder to reach     Tackling poverty and inequality amongst HIV-affected Adolescent Mothers     Strengthening sexual and reproductive health rights amongst HIV-affected Adolescent MOthers     Strengthening sexual and reproductive health rights amongst HIV-affected Adolescents  11.30-11:45     Photo and break  11.45-13:00     Section 2: What Needs to Change - Supporting Nurturing Care     Supporting Nurturing Care     Supporting HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care     Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers are an easy about those of adolescent mothers in particular?      HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  14:00-15:30     Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations     Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45     Final Reflections     Final Reflections     Next Steps and Closing remarks     Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS  16:30-17:00     END		Improving the Human Rights and Legal Environment	Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy
Support those harder to reach  Treatment Coalition  Tackling poverty and inequality amongst HIV-affected Adolescent Mothers  Strengthening sexual and reproductive health rights amongst HIV-affected Adolescents  Strengthening sexual and reproductive health rights amongst HIV-affected Adolescents  Photo and break  11.45-13:00  Section 2: What Needs to Change Supporting Nurturing Care  Supporting HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers in particular?  HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  13:00-14:00  14:00-15:30  Perioripants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations  Plenary reflection and consolidation  Plenary reflection and consolidation  Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Break  15:45-16:00  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS			I amongst HIV-affected Adolescent Mothers  • Strengthening sexual and reproductive health rights amongst HIV-affected Adolescents  11.30-11:45  Photo and break  11.45-13:00  Section 2: What Needs to Change - Supporting Nurturing Care  • Supporting HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  • Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers of adolescent mothers what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  13:00-14:00  Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  • Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  • Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Simal Reflections  Ouarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS			· ·
health rights amongst HIV-affected Adolescents  11.30-11:45 Photo and break  11.45-13:00 Section 2: What Needs to Change - Supporting Nurturing Care  • Supporting Nurturing Care  • Supporting HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  • Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  • Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers  • HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  13:00-14:00 Lunch  14:00-15:30 Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  • Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  • Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45 Break  15:45-16:00 Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS		amongst HIV-affected Adolescent	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
11.45-13:00 Section 2: What Needs to Change - Supporting Nurturing Care  • Supporting HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  • Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers  • HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  13:00-14:00  14:00-15:30 Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  • Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  • Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Final Reflections  Ouarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30 Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS		health rights amongst HIV-affected	I
Supporting Nurturing Care  Supporting HIV-affected adolescent mothers to provide nurturing care  Building mental resilience amongst HIV-affected adolescent mothers  HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  Lunch  14:00-15:30  Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation affected by AIDS	11.30-11:45	Photo and break
Building mental resilience amongst HIV- affected adolescent mothers      HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  13:00-14:00  Lunch  Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  Plenary reflection and consolidation  Pinal Reflections  Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Providence amongst HIV- Claude Ann Mellins, Columbia University Kate Powis, Harvard University Kate Powis, Harvard University  Small groups exercise chaired by Luann Hatane, PATA and Co-Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS  All  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS	11.45-13:00	_	_
affected adolescent mothers  ### HIV exposed uninfected children - what can we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  #### Lunch  #### 13:00-14:00    Lunch
tan we say about those of adolescent mothers in particular?  13:00-14:00  14:00-15:30  Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS		1	·
14:00-15:30 Section 3: Consolidating Key Advocacy Recommendations  • Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations. • Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Final Reflections  • Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS		can we say about those of adolescent	Kate Powis, Harvard University
Recommendations  Luann Hatane, PATA and Co-Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS  • Participants break up into small groups to refine and rank their priority recommendations. • Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Break  15:45-16:00  Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS	13:00-14:00 to refine and rank their priority recommendations.  Plenary reflection and consolidation  15:30-15:45  Break  15:45-16:00 Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  16:00-16:30 Next Steps and Closing remarks  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS	14:00-15:30	_ ,	Luann Hatane, PATA and Co-Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by
15:45-16:00 Final Reflections  Quarraisha Abdool Karim, UNAIDS Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS		to refine and rank their priority recommendations.	All
Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu Foundation  Dr Meg Doherty, WHO and Lisa Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS	15:30-15:45
Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition for Children affected by AIDS	15:45-16:00	Final Reflections	Collaborating Centre for HIV Research & Policy (CAPRISA) and Linda-Gail Bekker, Desmond Tutu
16:30-17:00 END	16:00-16:30	Next Steps and Closing remarks	Bohmer, the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation and Chair of the Coalition
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	16:30-17:00	END	